Circular No. 2930—G. A. D. 377, dated 14—18th November 1910.

To

All Gazetted Officers, Amildars, Deputy Amildars and Munsiffs.

The undersigned has the honor to observe that certificates of giving over and taking charge, or of proceeding on and returning from leave in the case of officers to whom this circular is addressed are not received in this office in many instances till long after the occurrence, and in some instances not received at all, till called for by this office. This throws unnecessary work on this office in issuing requisitions for such certificates (the number of requisitions issued during the last two official years and the three months of the current year being about 280, 270 and 70 respectively), besides putting it to very great inconvenience in not being in possession of up-to-date information regarding these incidents in the services of gazetted and other officers, which information is necessary for several purposes.
